

Your Own Robin Hood Story

Directions: Tales like the “Pardoner’s Tale” in The Canterbury Tales by Geoffrey Chaucer were popular during the Middle Ages. Use this story starter to help you begin your own story about another popular character, Robin Hood.

_____

(title)

by _____

(name)

Although Robin and his men were unaware of it, the Sheriff of Nottingham was closing in on them. By the light of the full moon, the Sheriff crept toward the sleeping men. _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Robin Hood's Hideout

The town of Nottingham is located in the center of England, about 125 miles northeast of London. North of Nottingham is Sherwood Forest. It is bordered by the Dove River on the west and the Trent River on the east. The town of Sheffield is to the northeast of Sherwood Forest. The forest is approximately 35 miles wide and 40 miles long.

Use these facts and information from the story to create a map of Sherwood Forest, detailing Robin's hideout and special meeting places.

