First Rehearsal: Wednesday Oct. 9th
First Rehearsal: Thursday Sept. 26th

Open to boys and girls 4th – 8th grade. YEAR LONG commitment.

Why join Bells or Chorus? Not only will students enjoy learning and performing exciting, inspirational music, they will also be putting math and critical thinking skills to work in a creative and active way. Students gain confidence, self-respect, and an appreciation for being part of a musical team that works cooperatively and artistically to achieve common goals. “Music is the universal language of mankind.” ~ Longfellow

No audition required. No fees. Each child may join either Bells or Chorus. A child may be in both Band and Bells or Band and Chorus. A child may not be in other afterschool groups that meet at the same time.

Music reading ability not required, but very helpful. Limited to only 20 students.
Music reading ability not required, but helpful. No limit on number of students.

Plays Malmark Choirchime Instruments. Very similar sound to handbells. Will play assigned chime(s) in songs as a group, both sacred and secular. Learns basic music theory. Will play for certain school Masses and concerts, some of which may be at locations other than the school. If positions are filled, you can be placed on a waiting list.

Sings unison and part songs both sacred and secular. Not required to sing solos, but opportunities may exist for solos, duets, and small groups. Learns singing skills and basic music theory. Will sing at school Masses and concerts, some of which may be at locations other than the school. Auditioned cantors practice after chorus.

Director – Mrs. Frazier – 301-662-6722 pfrazier@sjrcs.org Please contact me with any questions.

Cut here and return to Mrs. Frazier by Monday 9/23/19. Please include a separate permission slip for each child.

I give permission for my child to join the SJRCS Bell Choir or Chorus. I understand that I will pick up my child at 3:30 p.m. at the front entrance of the school on the days that the group meets.
