

Good Afternoon

I can't believe I am writing WR#5. I feel like I'm living Groundhog Day.  This will be a quick email as many questions about the remainder of the school year will be answered next week.

The following four events happened this week if you hadn't heard:

- 1) On Wednesday, Governor Little extended the the stay-home order until April 30.
- 2) The State Board of Education confirmed the soft closure is in effect and approved criteria to reopen schools, but it will be difficult process. We will more than likely stay in soft closure for the remainder of the 2019-2020 school year.
- 3) The IHSAA has canceled the spring sports and state tournaments. We knew this decision was coming, yet still a real bummer for our student athletes and coaches.
- 4) Tim and Keri Perrigot (my awesome wife) have gone big time with the release of their new video "Get Back to Work" <https://youtu.be/BER3qTa13hY>

Great stuff if you ask me.... hahahaha

Go Trojans,

Tim Perrigot
