Edulastic (Student)

If you are having issues logging into Edulastic, please try back at a later time. We are in contact with the company and are waiting for an update to be pushed for Limestone County Schools. Once the update has been performed, you should then easily be able to login.

If you are still unable to login and need assistance, feel free to contact Catherine Preston the Instructional Technology Facilitator at Ardmore High School. Local ITFs will be assisting feeder schools with technology needs. You may contact her via email at catherine.preston@lcsk12.org
