

Congratulations to Seagrove Elementary School for winning the Randolph County School System's 2020 Elementary School Battle of the Books!

The top three finishes were as follows:

|               |                                 |           |
|---------------|---------------------------------|-----------|
| First Place:  | Seagrove Elementary School      | 65 points |
| Second Place: | John Lawrence Elementary School | 64 points |
| Third Place:  | Randleman Elementary School     | 57 points |

Thank you to all of the teams and their hard work in preparation for the competition.