

HOF-2020 Press Release

Although COVID-19 has affected so many events, Eastern Randolph will have a Hall of Fame Class for 2020. Nominees have been informed in an untraditional way, but will be inducted with the 2021 Class in a duo-ceremony. We feel all nominees deserve the pageantry of the event. Their dedication and devotion to Eastern Randolph has been noticed and well appreciated. So, congratulations go to the following:

Sandy Frye, Class of 1977, a two-sport athlete, basketball and a captain of the track team for 3 years

Jackie McNeil, Class of 1978, one the best basketball athletes to come from Randolph County and went on to play at Lenior-Rhyne.

Shane Long, Class of 1989, outstanding two-sport athlete, a 2X NCHSAA State Champion Wrestler, and a baseball player

Keke Spinks, Class of 1994, outstanding two-sport athlete, football and basketball and went on to play football at UNC-Chapel Hill

Travis Whitaker, Class of 1995, two-sport athlete, football and basketball and went on to play football and basketball at Elon College (Elon University)

Danny Roberts, coached 1987-1992, who previously had an outstanding collegiate career at Campbell University

Rod Goldston, Class of 1998, a two-sport athlete, played on 2-A NCHSAA State Baseball Champions in 1998, also went on to have an outstanding baseball career at Western Carolina.
