DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of 1971, are proud to dedicate this year's Dragon to Mr. Frank Guenther. This man has helped us in many ways through our high school years, and will influence our future lives.

As a teacher, he has shown us the many roads of life we could take and helped us prepare for our future.

As an advisor, he has made us realize how important it is to work together as a group.

As a principal we appreciate the endless time and effort he has put forth to improve our school.

As a friend he was always ready to drop whatever he was doing to help us.

Dedicating this annual to Mr. Guenther is only one way of showing our appreciation and gratitude to him. Our full appreciation can not be expressed in words.

We are especially grateful to him for the interest he has shown in us as a class and as individuals.

The devil didn't make me do it.
God told me to.

SUSAN LEMPART
Treasurer
Here I am you lucky people.

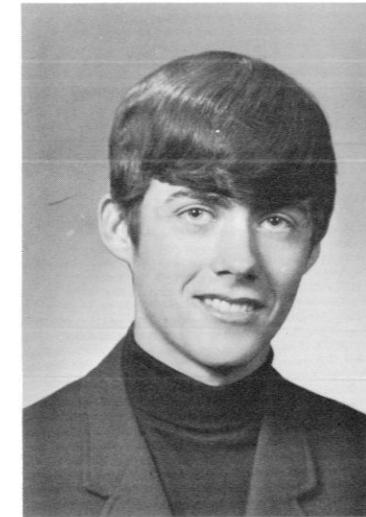

MARY ELLA HANSON
Reporter
It matters not what you are thought to be, but what you are.

TERRY DAKEN
Student Council
Just because I don't say anything doesn't mean I have nothing to say.

DONNA POXLEITNER
President
I know a whole lot, but I can never think of it.

Daryl Bauer
I was once caught studying, but I lived down the disgrace.

DEB KEMMER
Secretary
I was born for something -
What was it?

PEGGY PULA
Reporter
Heaven sent me and only heaven knows why.

David Frenzel Always laughing, happy and gay; perhaps I will grow up some day.

VICKI GRUNDMEIER
The blush is beautiful but inconvenient.

PEGGY HEBERT
Generally speaking, she's generally speaking.

SHELDON HURLBERT
His manner is quiet, but don't judge him by it.

DICK LEONHARDT
Well, I graduated, didn't I?

JOHN McCARTHY
I want to be shy, but the girls won't let me.

CONNIE JENSON
I chatter as I go, and I go on forever.

ROGER MILLER
All great men are dying, but I'm feeling pretty good.

JEWEL JOHNSRUD
I can live without poetry and walking, but who in the world can live without talking?

LYNETTE JOHNSON
Lead me not into temptation, but show me where it's at.

GEORGE MOHS
Why talk sense when nonsense serves the purpose.

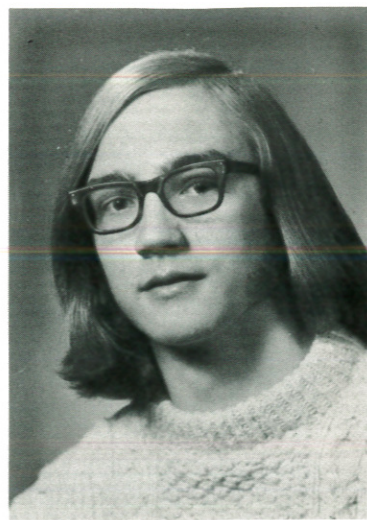

ANDY NEFT
After 12 years of faithful service, I'm laid off.

CAROL NISTLER
I put all my troubles in a box and sit on the lid and laugh

DEBORAH NOBLE
I have high blush pressure.

Richard Skoe
There's three sides to every story. The right
the wrong and mine.

TIM STRAND
Play and I will play with you;
study and I will play alone.

DAVID REIERSON
High school days are good.
High school nights are better.

JACKIE REIERSON
My mouth works faster than my brain. I say things I haven't even thought of yet.

KATHY SHOGREN
Women are entitled to life, liberty and pursuit of men.

COMMENCEMENT

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

The Seniors of 1971, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby declare this to be their last will and testament from K.H.S.

Daryl Bauer wills to the deserving Juniors his favorite class, English, may they have fun in it. He also wills his ability to speak correct English to whoever ain't got the ability.

Terry Daken wills his ability to speak in front of class to Victor Hanks and he hopes he can use it. He also wills his ability to hold booze to Rod Skoe.

Vicki Grundmeier wills her Business Law and Basic Business books to anyone who is unlucky enough to get them. She also wills her ability to cut hair to Wayne and Tom and her ability to stack hay bales to Steve Hanks.

Peggy Hebert wills her seat on the bus to Dave Stomberg, and since it is on the girls side of the bus she is sure he will make good use of it. She also wills her track tennis shoes to Joe Waldo so they won't both have the same ones.

Sheldon Hurlbert wills his studious habits to Arlen Houchin. To Al Davidson he wills his luck at basketball (and hopes he can improve it). To Jerry Smischney he wills his speed of their '65 Chevy (that will cause him to have fits). Lastly, his ability at Physics to Kim Nelson.

Lynette Johnson wills to Rene Brandon her place by the window on the bus in hopes she may enjoy the cold fresh air during the winter. To anyone who might want it, she leaves her Business Law book--they won't want it very long. To everyone in High School she wills all the fun times she's had at K.H.S (especially cheerleading). To Mr. Grahek, her ability to leave the ceilings alone.

Jewel Johnsrud wills her trombone to anyone who is windier than her. Lastly, she wills her ability to parallel park to anyone who likes to sit up on the curb.

Debbie Kemmer sincerely wills all her good times supporting the Dragons to all the cheerleaders in hopes it means as much to them as it did to her. She wills her ability to laugh in the morning to the coach. Also all her old hunting licenses she leaves to Karen Johnsrud in hopes she'll pin them up and laugh. Last but not least, she wills her Ambush, along with her tennis shoes and skirt, to whomever stole them..... take good care of them!!!!

Susan Lempart wills her feet to Mary Mullan so that she may support her wight more easily, and to Cedric Gamble her weight!! Last, to Marilyn and Bonnie Grundmeier the fun times Vicki and her have had working in the hay barn and silo.

John McCarthy wills his old pair of shoes to the Coach and hopes he doesn't tear the heels off too fast, because he didn't get in his drawers.

Roger Miller wills his ability to keep out of trouble to any Junior who wishes they had it. Also he'd like to leave Kim his ability to wrestle, and fake classroom answers.

David Frenzel wills his ability to keep cops away from parties to the Juniors. Good luck.... He also wills his size to Peanut Waldo because he'll need it in football.

George Mohs wills his ability to miss stop signs to Al Davidson. Also his ability and courage to go through the halls singing to Mr. Grahek.

Richard Skoe wills his ability to play pingpong to Mr. Minette so that he can join the U.S. table tennis team. To Mr. Carrillo he wills his hair so he won't need to buy a toupee. Also his ability to argue in class to Gerald Hoyum so he can enjoy himself as much as he has.

Kathy Shogren wills her ability in German class to Marilyn Krueth, and her good times at K.H.S. to anyone who wants them. Also, her studious habits to Steve Hufnagle.

Debbie Noble wills her ability to sit under bridges to Rod Skoe. Also her ability to get caught parking to Doreen Waldo, and last her ability to walk between two rows of desks to Mary Mullan.

Tim Waldo wills to his little brother and Rod Skoe all his good times he has had in his jeep and hopes they take good care of it because he'll be home on weekends to find out about it all. To Karen Johnsrud he wills his ability to water ski and hopes she will teach Billy someday.

Andy Neft wills his curly hair to Ron Cutting, also his door opening job in Business Law to Jerry S.

Carol Nistler wills her fun nights at the Pine Grove to her sister Mary, and hopes she knows what to do with them. To Mary Mullan she wills her naturally curly hair and hopes she doesn't have as much trouble with it as she did. To all the kids taking drivers training next year, she wills her ability to use the emergency brake.

Dave Reierson wills his running ability to Anthony Bronczyk and hopes he makes good use of it.

Donna Poxleitner wills her door opening job, when Andy Neft isn't there, in the Business Law room to anyone who is unlucky enough to be in that room at that time and sitting in the first row. She wills her ability to get in before 3 A.M. to her brother and Deb Urseth, although she knows it won't be put to any use. Also, she wills her good times as a cheerleader to all future K.H.S. cheerleaders and hopes they have as much fun as she did.

Tim Strand wills his ability to get good grades in German to Deb Urseth and Cathy Bauer, also they can have his English book. Good luck, you may need it. To Al and Kelly he wills all his good times at Waskish and knows they will make good use of them.

Jackie Reierson wills her talking ability to Penny Halvorson and hopes she knows what to do with it. Also, she wills her bicycle with training wheels to Mr. Grahek and hopes he knows how to use it, and her good Saturday nights to Jerry Smischney and hopes he knows what to do with them.

Peggy Pula wills all her experiences with her contacts to Janet Pula in hopes that she'll never use them. To Mary Mullan she wills her Physics book..... she might be able to use it for starting a fire....it's not much good for anything else. To her brother Jerry, she wills her cooking ability so he won't starve when she's gone. Also her ability to be such a hard worker 'cause he could use some of it. She wills her dislike for hairy guys to Cathy Holliday. Last but not least, she wills her ability to be tight and thrifty with her money to the class of '72 so maybe they will be able to keep money in their treasury.

Dick Leonhardt wills his 305 Suzuki to Kelly Petrowske and Al Davidson to improve their chasing ability in the parks of Waskish.

Mary Ella Hanson wills her seat on the bus to Marilyn Krueth and hopes the bus rides will be shorter. She also wills her last years Chemistry book to anyone who will enjoy it as much as she did.

Coni Jenson wills her Hamlet and Shakespeare books to anyone who will use their time to study it as much as she did. She also wills her good times to all future graduates of K.H.S.
