“STAR<sup>3</sup> Students” for November 2019

Coleridge Elementary School - Karsyn Poole - Kindergarten

Karsyn Poole is a wonderful student in the classroom and always is willing to help her peers and teachers in whatever they ask her to do. She brings a smile to school every day and strives to do her best. Karsyn is very kind and thoughtful to her peers and desires to please. Her smile and laugh are contagious! Congratulations to Karsyn Poole, Coleridge Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Eastern Randolph High School - Curtis Williams - 12th Grade

Curtis Williams has overcome adversity and now faces a bright future. Curtis puts forth great effort in the classroom, which has translated to great effort and success on the athletic field. He plays football and baseball for the Wildcats and is a senior leader on those teams this year. Through his hard work and determination to be successful in school, Curtis has learned valuable life and leadership skills that will help him succeed in the future. After high school, Curtis plans to attend Randolph Community College, where he plans to enter the auto body/collision program. Eastern Randolph High School is proud of Curtis Williams and is pleased to select him as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Farmer Elementary School - Kayelyn Hayes - 2nd grade

Kayelyn Hayes is new to Farmer Elementary School this year and already she is thriving and overcoming obstacles. Kayelyn comes into the classroom each day smiling and striving to accomplish her daily tasks with joy. She has befriended those who needed friendship, works hard in reading, writing, and math, and meets the grade level expectations. Kayelyn maintains a positive demeanor, even when tasks or situations become challenging. These characteristics make her a star student, and Farmer Elementary School is proud to select Kayelyn Hayes as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Seagrove Elementary School - Dallas Primm - 1st Grade

Dallas Primm goes above and beyond each and every day to ensure his success and help his peers to succeed as well. His work ethic and the kindness he demonstrates to his peers are unmatched. Because of Dallas' hard work and determination, he has already grown two reading levels so far this year. Seagrove Elementary School is proud to call Dallas Primm our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Kayla Saunders - 8th Grade

Kayla Saunders is not only a model student, she also models good character and is a Wildcat through and through. Kayla is cooperative, attentive, trustworthy, and successful in all that she does. She represents Southeastern Randolph Middle School as a cheerleader and always has positive and encouraging words for others. Kayla could be a life coach, as she always supports those in need and reminds others of why they are special. If you have a Kayla Saunders in your life, you are lucky. She is a great student and represents what is expected of a Wildcat. Congratulations to Kayla Saunders, Southeastern Randolph Middle School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Southmont Elementary School - Caroline Cagle - 5th Grade

Caroline Cagle is an excellent student who always is willing to go the extra mile. She is a wonderful friend to her peers and always seeks to help those in need. Caroline is consistently on task and ready to learn, turns in her schoolwork on time, and shows Southmont Pride in everything she does. As a role model for her peers, Caroline is well-respected by other students. She was inducted into Southmont's newly chartered National Junior Beta Club this fall and now serves the group as president. Southmont Elementary School is honored to recognize Caroline Cagle as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Cinthya Ramirez Ramirez - 12th Grade

Cinthya Ramirez Ramirez is an exceptional student with a quietly tenacious personality. Her innate desire to learn and curiosity within the classroom enhance the learning environment. Cinthya's tremendous work ethic, delightfully positive personality, and servant leadership style benefit her and others. She serves as president of our school's Health Occupations Student Association. Cinthya participated in a program this past summer at Davidson College, where she completed mini-courses in neuroscience and Latin American Studies. Having experienced her share of obstacles and adversity, Cinthya has never been distracted nor deterred from working toward her goals and aspirations. One of her goals is to pursue a medical degree and we have no doubt that she will be successful. Southwestern Randolph High School is excited to choose Cinthya Ramirez Ramirez as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Maria Foust - 8th Grade

Maria Foust maintains straight A's in all her classes, while serving as president of the Beta Club and co-captain of the cheerleading team. As a member of the gymnastics team at Randolph Gymnastics Academy, Maria participates on a World's competitive cheerleading team and a D2 Summit competitive cheerleading team. She teaches tumbling classes to children from 18 months old to four years old. Maria volunteers with two community organizations and also sings with her sister in the church. She is a well-rounded student with a positive demeanor who is willing to help others. Maria always is smiling and is respected by her peers and school staff members. Maria Foust is an outstanding student and is deserving of her selection as Southwestern Randolph Middle School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Elizabeth Cody - 2nd Grade

Elizabeth Cody is a fun-loving, nurturing person who is kind to her friends and new classmates. She "jumps right in" to make others feel welcome and accepted in the classroom. Elizabeth always is willing to model or explain assignments to individuals and small groups. She is interested in becoming a teacher one day and recently dressed up like a teacher on Career Day to share her future interests. Elizabeth makes a difference in the lives of others every day and displays kindness, concern, and empathy for everyone she meets. Congratulations, Elizabeth Cody, Tabernacle Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Olivia Tuttle - 11th Grade

Olivia Tuttle, who began at Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve in the sixth grade, elected to remain at the school and become a part of the first graduating class in 2021. Through the years, Olivia has faced some challenges, yet never let them affect her work or her outlook at school. She is taking most of her classes at Randolph Community College (RCC), but as a media assistant she routinely checks in to offer help whenever it may be needed. When her first block is over and she does not need to report to her job in Asheboro or class at RCC, Olivia often volunteers her time to help at school. She has a great demeanor, loves to hunt and fish, and is an exceptional young student. We are blessed to have Olivia Tuttle at Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve, look forward to her accomplishments, and congratulate her on being selected our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.
