Shout Out to Carver Elementary School Dads & Male Mentors

Vision: "Working together to provide students with a quality education to make them successful at their next educational level."

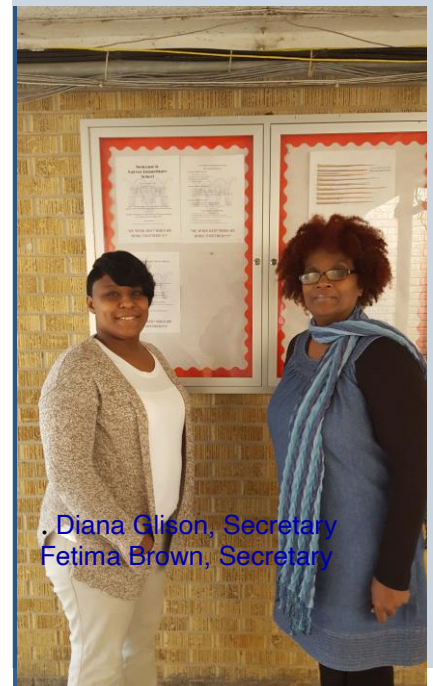

Mission: Educating every child, every day effectively so that they are successful citizens

Father Engagement

On Wednesday, January 25, 2017 Carver Elementary School invited dads and male mentors to eat doughnuts with their children while discussing how important it is to have a Male role model. C.A.R.E.S. mentor Larry Dozier was the speaker, and Marilyn James did an ice breaker that can be done at home to promote Literacy Strategy Skills.

With Carver Staff and IPC working together we had over 70 males to participate. I would like to give a special thanks to Ms. Yolanda Preston, C.A.R.E.S Lead Site Coordinator, Melissa Worker, Site Coordinator, Marilyn James, IPC Parent Liaison, Shequite Johnson, IPC Community Liaison, and Maritha Turner, CES Parent Liaison.

Martin Luther King Quotes

“Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that”

“The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy”

“I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character”

“I have decided to stick with love. Hate is too great a burden to bear.”
