It is our great pleasure to provide an update on the progress of our Build the Dream, Guard the Legacy campaign and our new, "Guardian Catholic School" that opened in August, bringing together the students of Holy Rosary and St. Pius V on a single, integrated campus.

Just think, we broke ground on this new school a year ago this week, we all feel incredibly blessed to have construction completed in time to serve our 420 Pre-K3 through 8th grade students, for the 2017-2018 school year. Our students and their families already feel at home at their new campus, and for the first time we have a gymnasium for our students to use for PE, sports, and especially to host basketball games in the brand-new gymnasium.

Last Monday, we saw many of you as Bishop Estevez had a very special mass, blessing and ribbon-cutting ceremony for the new school. It was truly humbling to see so many loyal supporters of the Guardian gather together to celebrate this monumental achievement. It would not be possible without our generous donors, dedicated board members, school administrators, and the construction team at Auld & White. We wish to offer our deep-felt gratitude for each one of you.

Together we have raised over $10.1 million in donations for the building of the school and it is our goal is to continue raising funds to cover our 10.3 million for project costs, and will officially close the campaign at the end of 2017.

Thank you for playing such an instrumental role in the success of our Build the Dream, Guard the Legacy campaign. We hope that you will join us soon for a campus tour so that you may see firsthand the amazing things that are happening at the Guardian Catholic School.

Many Blessings,

Bob Shircliff
