Seniors 2004

Remember way back when you started to school
And you were a scared little kid?
You walked down the hall with your pack on your back
And those seniors-- they all looked so BIG!

But you made it through Kindergarten and the first grade
And you learned how to read and write
And somehow the seniors, though they were still big,
Did not put you into a fright!

So you passed through second grade, then third and fourth
And then you were no longer shy!
In the fifth grade you'd meet seniors out in the hall
And you'd look them right in the eye!

Then in Middle Level, you had your own hall
And the seniors, they had their own side.
If you met a senior, you sometimes said "Hi!"
There wasn't a reason to hide!

You got into ninth grade; It really was fun.
The seniors were right there with you!
You were in clubs with them and maybe on teams,
But they left no doubt --SENIORS RULE!

The tenth grade passed quickly; a new school year came.
You were juniors! It was hard to believe!
You soon would be seniors, and then in the spring
You would graduate and you would leave!

And now you ARE seniors, and you're almost done
With your high school; you walk through the hall.
The Kindergarten kids leave with their packs on their backs
And you think, "oh my goodness! They're SMALL!"

So what goes around comes around, as you see!
To those little ones, you are the top!
You're being role models in all that you do!
Be good models and don't ever stop

This year was another slow start. With a new head coach, things were definitely different. We had two very strong seniors, which helped, but the rest of the varsity team was very young. With a junior, five sophomores and a freshmen. We might have not won very many games, but we had fun. Next year will be another young team and a fresh start. And again we'll have a new head coach. We look forward to next year, and hope for the best, and maybe a few more wins!

U.S. troops in Iraq

The biggest news event of 2003 was unquestionably President Bush's decision to employ American armed forces to oust Iraqi dictator Saddam Hussein. The regime was toppled quickly, forcing Hussein and top members of his Baath political party into hiding. After an exhaustive manhunt, U.S. forces captured Hussein in a small underground hiding area on the banks of the Tigris River.

an epic conclusion

In 2003, the one film at the top of everyone's must-see list was The Return of the King. In the final chapter of The Lord of the Rings trilogy, Frodo (Elijah Wood) journeys to Mount Doom to dispose of a very dangerous piece of jewelry. Meanwhile, Aragorn (Viggo Mortensen) and Gandalf (Ian McKellen) lead humanity in one last stand against Sauron's massive army of Orcs and airplane-sized elephants. Will the One Ring be destroyed? Will humanity survive? Will director Peter Jackson finally get a Best Picture Oscar® for his amazing work? All of Middle Earth wants to know...

Fear factor

a little too real

Impossible to believe but true—2003 saw even more reality shows on TV than the year before. It seemed every person on the planet was being followed by a camera crew, from those searching for love (The Bachelor, The Bachelorette, For Love or Money, Average Joe, Joe Millionaire) to those seeking adventure (Fear Factor, Survivor, Road Rules, Beg, Borrow and Deal) to those looking for a sixteenth minute of fame (The Surreal Life). Of course, the show that started the craze, The Real World, was still going strong on MTV. Just promise us, please, no more Puck.
