

Mrs. Inez Daughtry Brewton

Mrs. Inez Daughtry Brewton was born in Hawkinsville, Georgia on December 7, 1941. She received her high school diploma from the Houston County Training School in 1959. A cum laude graduate of Fort Valley State College, she earned her Bachelor of Science Degree in Education and Master of Science Degree in Elementary Education.

Mrs. Brewton taught in Houston County schools for 31.3 years. After teaching at Kings Chapel Elementary, she transferred to Tucker Elementary where she spent the remainder of her career. In both schools Mrs. Brewton was a role model who demonstrated effective teaching strategies in organizing and managing appropriate classroom behavior. She was named "Teacher of the Year" in 1983 and 1993. In addition, she was the 1992 Houston County Teacher of the Year first runner-up. Often she has said, "I was born to teach," and she truly demonstrated her love for teaching through her daily tasks.

She is active in the community to include Trinity Baptist Church. Married to Philip Brewton for forty-six years, they have two children, Phyllis and Kristie, and four grandchildren, Kristie, Simonne, McKenzie and Kaylen. Mrs. Brewton retired from the school system in 1996. She resides in Fort Valley, Georgia.

"She knew what I was capable of, and she pushed me to do my best and more, she did with all of her students." ~ Ron Ragin, former student

"She went the extra mile to ensure that all of her students were successful." ~ Kristy Thornton-Alston, teacher
