Carroll County School System

Have you seen this symbol around our school system? This symbol represents the five different clusters of the Carroll County School System. Though the district is comprised of the different clusters, we are 24STRONG! 24STRONG describes Carroll County's initiative to be unified in our direction, culture, values, beliefs, processes and practices to ensure all students receive a premier educational experience in our unique communities.

Tips for parents of elementary, middle and high school students:

1. If you have an email, stay in touch with your child's teacher. Translation apps will help.
2. Sign up for Infinite Campus.
3. When shopping at the grocery store, have your child name the items on the shelves.
4. Read to your child and have your child read to you.

Raz-kids

Raz-kids.com is a reading website used in school and at home to provide students with books at their reading level. They are able to listen to, read, and answer questions about books. When they have successfully read a number of books at a level, the program will move them up to more difficult books on the next level. Their progress is tracked and can be checked by the teacher.

Study Dog

student.studydog.com is a website used at school and at home to provide basic reading skill practice. It is designed like a game to be fun for students as they practice letters, sounds, listening comprehension and other early literacy skills. Their progress is tracked and can be checked by the teacher.
