3.	Hearing of the Public: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Kim Sweatt, Technology Education teacher at Pittsburg, and two students from SCS (Savannah Ricker and Kole Chapple) were present to show the Board some of the projects the students had worked on during the first semester. Both students brought completed projects with them. Kim recommended that this program continue. Kim and students left at 5:18 pm. Arlene Allard joined the meeting at 5:18 pm to discuss GearUp. She presented a board showing the activities the students had been participating in. The National Conference is in San Francisco this year and they are hoping that one student can attend. Bruce reiterated that Arlene is doing a great job. They want to do a college visitation with a stay-over. The visit to Plymouth University was good, but very crowded. Arlene left the meeting at 5:37 pm. To accept and expend funds donated by Two Rivers Habitat for Humanity for the purchase of winter outwear for students in need within SAU 7 school districts. $2,000 is available. Devin Phillips is getting a list of students who are in need. Two Rivers Habitat is disbanding. K. Sweatt/P.
