SCHEDULING REMINDER

All students will receive a paper schedule on the first day back from the holiday break. For schedule adjustments, email your counselor

(Mr. Insell 10th/12th, Mrs. Ally 9th/11th). Students are to follow their schedules until a counselor contacts them about changes.

Yearbooks are $80 and available now to purchase online at

<http://yearbookforever.com>

Casual Senior Pictures are due Dec. 4th!

FRUIT SALE!
Support Skills USA and FFA!
Fruit will be delivered on
Dec. 7th.

Project Lit!

Project Lit is an exciting new book club at CCHS that encourages students to discover the joy of reading! Project Lit selects one book each month for students (and teachers!) to read and enjoy on their own; at the end of the month, everyone comes together to discuss the book, share our thoughts, and eat some food. Everyone is welcome!

Don't miss out on the next book!

Seniors

Don't miss out on a FREE opportunity to take the ACT on Dec. 12th. Registered students need to report to the cafeteria by 8:00 a.m.

See Mrs. Stallings for more information.

Tutoring Opportunity!

An exciting FREE tutoring opportunity for students is available. Students will enroll in a 5 week cohort that will meet on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays.

THERE WILL BE NO TUTORING OFFERED IN DECEMBER TUTORING WILL RESUME IN JANUARY.

Each session will involve math and/or English skills along with activities. The activities and instruction will be led by CCHS teachers and paraprofessionals dedicated to your child's growth and development. Activities will vary and will include a wide range of options that interest students. Snacks and transportation will be provided each day for students as well as transportation home.

If you would like to enroll your child please contact Mrs. Haltom or Mr. McPeake. Mrs. Haltom - Angelia.Haltom@Chestercountyschools.org
Mr. McPeake - Wes.McPeake@Chestercountyschools.org
