VHS FCCLA Takes Treats to Kids in Hospital

What's Inside

FCCLA members from Veterans High School in Kathleen, Georgia assembled Halloween treat buckets and delivered them to the children on the pediatric wing at the Medical Center of Houston County on October 30th. The patients were very excited to see the students with the treats since they would be spending Halloween in the hospital and missing out on trick or treating.

FCCLA members participating in this community service project were Hannah Schoonover, Hannah Evans, Destiney Pope, Sarah Dugger, and Paulo Hawthorne.

VHS FBLA Visits Antebellum Grove Senior Living

The Veterans High School Chapter of Future Business Leaders of America visited residents at the Antebellum Grove Senior Living Facility on September 25, 2018. FBLA is a community-oriented, business student organization to lift the spirits of the residents through playing games, including bingo, talking, and getting to know the residents. This was not the first FBLA visit to the facility, and the students hope to continue spending time with the residents. Antebellum Grove Senior Living is located on 1010 Kathryn Ryals Road in Warner Robins, Georgia.

The students enjoy visiting the residents with hopes to brighten their day, and are always welcomed with open arms. The officer team reaches out to the activity director of the senior living home to make the visits possible.

VHS DECA Officers Attend WORKWINWOW Workshop

VHS DECA Officers participated in WorkWinWow, an Officer Training for all Local Chapter Officers throughout the state of Georgia on September 20, 2018. This was great opportunity for chapters to create a program of leadership, develop their calendar of activities, network with other chapters, and create a unified officer team.

Over 600 DECA members throughout the state attended this workshop. Officers were able to build their network and develop professional documents for their local chapter.

NHS FCCLA Hosts Rush Week

Northside High FCCLA had held Rush week on August 21-25, 2018 to recruit new members for the year. Local officers planned a fun week to encourage students to join FCCLA. On "Media Monday" members put up flyers and posters to encourage students to follow NHS FCCLA chapter on social media. During "Too Cool Tuesday" members gave out popsicles to students in the cafeteria and got recruitment information from them. Students were told to "Watch Out" on Wednesday, because members kidnapped a friend for a Chick-fil-A lunch. Since the school's football game was on Thursday, members painted faces for school spirit. The membership recruitment theme this year is "FCCLA Needs S'more Students Like You." Going along with the theme for Friday, students in Jill Masee and Carla Jessup's classes made s'mores to end the rush week.

NHS FBLA Hosts Induction Ceremony

An induction ceremony for Northside High School FBLA Officers and members was held in the Media Center in October. In addition, Betsy Brown, guest speaker, talked about “Being an Effective Leader.” Brown is a former Assistant Superintendent for Putnam County Schools. Students were also given valuable information about applying for college scholarships. Refreshments were served.

WRHS FFA Competes in Career Development Event

For several FFA members, long hours of practice paid off as they competed in the Central Region Floral Design and Job Interview Career Development Event held at Camp John Hope in Fort Valley, Georgia. Competing in Job Interview was Emily Edelman. Also competing, representing Warner Robins High School, was Rebecca Edelman. Rebecca competed in floral design senior division and placed in the top 20 participants.

The purpose of the career development events and shows are to connect students with what is taught in the classroom to practices utilized in the floriculture, automotive and industry. Additionally, the competition promotes academic achievement and competence for students who seek a future in these areas.

FFA members also did an awesome job at the Region Rally and Georgia National Fair competing in several areas. The winners and participants were:

HCHS Students Win App Challenge Awards

Houston County High School students won the top three awards in the Congressional App Challenge for the Eighth Congressional District. The winning students were honored December 3rd by Congressman Austin Scott for the original apps they created.

GTRI, Jonathan Kenton, Mentor from GTRI, and Hillarie Furman, MERC.

Awards were presented as follows:

1st place ~ Rumi Lee for AidMe, a first aid medical assistance app designed for K-12 students.

2nd place ~ Team members Donghyun Kwak, Carter Richter, Connor Richter and Tien Tran for Wrath's Wrath, a game to provide a fun challenge.

3rd place ~ Team members Aaron Mathieson, Christopher Saetia and Nikita Shetty for their app Rate-It R, to make it easier to choose a movie to watch.

The students are members of the school's Coding Club. Shirl Williams, Computer Science Teacher, serves as Adviser. Williams said, "We are grateful to Congressman Scott, Brandon Hancock and all the mentors of Georgia Tech Research Institute for their encouragement to participate in this venture. Brandon graduated from our school in 2014 and is a great role model for all of our students."

As the Eighth District's top winner, Rumi has been invited to a #HouseofCode event in Washington, D.C. this spring. Her app will also be on display at the U.S. Capitol and on the official U.S. House of Representatives website in the spring. Rumi's AidMe app gives the proper steps to take based on the type of emergency, whether a burn, bleeding, fainting or in need of CPR. Users may also create a virtual first aid kit. She created her app using Adobe Illustrator, Android Studio, XML and Java.

She said, "Having seen medical emergencies occur in the classroom, I wanted to create an app that would help educate and empower my peers who could face similar situations in the future."

The apps were judged by representatives from these companies: BAE Systems, GTRI, Mercer Engineering Research Center, Mercer University, Museum of Aviation Foundation, Robins Air Force Base and University of Dayton Research Institute. The goal of the competition is to inspire and engage secondary students in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM), coding and computer science.

Houston County High School is located at 920 Highway 96 in Warner Robins, Georgia. Dr. Doug Rizer serves as Principal. For more information about this contest, please visit <https://www.congressionalappchallenge.us/about/>. ## HCHS FBLA Sponsors Girls Who Code

This fall, Houston County High School, sponsored by FBLA, began a Girls Who Code club. Girls Who Code strives to give support to and increase the number of women in Computer Science. The club seeks to empower girls in a community of friendship, bravery, resilience, creativity and with purpose. Students create individual projects such as coding a website using JavaScript or making a chat-bot with Python. Houston County High's chapter is working together to create an electronic magazine. Girls Who Code seeks to define the future of our world one code at a time. Pictured (left to right) are: Zariah White-

Walter, Tamara Hawkins and Zee Thomas.

Houston County High School's FBLA Advisers are: Jenny Jackson, Gina Jessup, Shirl Williams, and Sheila Jones. CTAE Supervisor is Karma Hayes.

HCHS FCCLA Turns Up The Heat To Win in State Chili Cook-Off

PJ James, a Houston County High School Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) member was awarded Second Place in the Georgia FCCLA State Chili Cook-Off Competition. The State Chili Cook-Off is an annual event that takes place at the Georgia National Fairgrounds in Perry.

The FCCLA Chili Cook-Off was PJ's first competition with FCCLA. He competed against Family and Consumer Sciences and Culinary students from across the state. "PJ's Jammin' Chili" was his own original chili creation and was commended by the judges for its flavor, earning him a Second Place win. PJ was recognized and awarded by the Georgia FCCLA Executive Director, Traci Bryant, as pictured here.

When asked about his experience in competing in the FCCLA Chili Cook-Off, PJ said, "Being a Chili Cook-Off competitor was an incredible experience for me! I enjoyed having the chance to use my cooking skills and passion for food and working with different flavors that I have gained from my FACS class at Houston County High School. I am really proud of my recipe and my performance in the FCCLA competition. I hope to continue being involved in opportunities like this and find ways to compete in future events."

Since the competition, PJ has continued experimenting with cooking and developing his own original recipes. He is striving to improve his skills based on the remarks of judges. PJ's efforts truly exemplify the opportunities that students can have within "The Ultimate Leadership Experience" that is FCCLA.

HCHS Fine Furniture and Cabinet Making Classes Enter Projects In Competition

Houston County High school had many students from the CTAE class, fine furniture and cabinet making (woodshop), enter their projects in the fine furniture competition for ages 18 and under at the 2018 Georgia National Fair. In this competition, HCHS took home many awards ranging from 1st to honorable mention.

The best in show and Highlands best awards were awarded to Nathan LeBorious for his night stand set made from wormy maple. He also got a 1st place ribbon for his bookshelf made from mahogany.

Andrew LeBorious got a 1st place award for a wormy maple head and foot board. (picture of the Head and footboard)

Presley Pittman was awarded a 1st place for a cutting board entered.

The 2nd, 3rd, and honorable mention was awarded to many people as well. Jack Truxal, honorable mention on a red oak bookshelf. Presley Pittman, honorable mention on a black walnut coffee table. Nathan LeBorious, 2nd on a cutting board and 3rd on a wormy maple bench. Andrew LeBorious, 2nd on a wormy maple dresser and a wormy maple stool. Christian Roe and Emma Reagan also took home ribbons.

HCHS FBLA Represents Georgia FBLA at NFLC in Chicago

The FBLA National Fall Leadership Conference was held in Chicago, Illinois on November 1st- 2nd. Houston County High School's Keerti Soundappan, the FBLA National Secretary, attended to work and facilitate the conference. She worked along with two other national officers, the Eastern Region Vice President Garrett Koch and the North Central Region Vice President Eli Amyx, to run workshops and take the stage at opening and closing ceremonies.

During the conference, Soundappan conducted her original workshop, "Shark Tank". This workshop taught the audience what it takes to be an entrepreneur, and takes them through the seven parts of a business plan. Members were then split off into small groups to create their own business plan, then pitch the idea to a panel, similar to the popular ABC show 'Shark Tank.' A winner was chosen by panel discretion and popular vote.

She also was able to network with other state chapters by conducting the State Officer Networking Session. She met many members from across the country with a wide range of FBLA experience, doling out advice and telling stories to engage and inspire other members.

Soundappan also presented awards alongside her fellow national officers at the opening and closing sessions. The Georgia FBLA chapter received three of the four membership awards including the Largest State Chapter award. Houston County High School has been represented at the FBLA National Fall Leadership Conferences for two consecutive years with their state officers.

Houston County Robotics Team Participates in STEAM Event

On November 7, 2018, the Air Force Reserve Command (AFRC) and the local Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) co-sponsored a Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, and Mathematics (STEAM) event for local high school students. Seven members of Houston County's FIRST Robotics Alliance participated. This event combined all aspects of the STEAM community through multiple academic challenges: a logic puzzle, the importance of art as communication, and a paper-rocket building and launching competition. This event helped local military engineers partner with the community to increase awareness and excitement surrounding STEAM careers. The Houston County team won 1st place for their patch design and communication message. The team is comprised of students from all Houston County High Schools and sponsored by Tom Stahl. For additional information please contact Sabrina Phelps at the Houston County Career Academy, sabrina.phelps@hcbe.net or 478-322-3280.
