

Any teacher wishing to invite a guest speaker to present to students attending this district must receive prior approval from the building principal.

In those instances when controversial matters may be discussed, the parent/guardians of the students shall be notified. When such materials shall be presented, students may request to be absent from class. In those instances, the teacher shall provide the students requesting to be absent with suitable instructional materials.

YYYYYYYY

LEGAL REFERENCE:

Idaho Code Section 33-506(1)

ADOPTED: November 11, 1998