“STAR<sup>3</sup> Students” for January 2020

Franklinville Elementary School - Easton Garrett - 4th Grade

Easton Garrett is a hard worker and has a smile that lights up a room. He is respectful and thoughtful and has impeccable manners. At our holiday program, Easton noticed a nervous classmate who would not participate in the concert. Easton approached the classmate, put his arm around him, and said, “Come on, buddy. We will do this together.” Easton is often overheard encouraging other students in multiple ways. He always tries to make everyone feel included. Even when chosen by the WFMY news crew at our “Read 2 Succeed” assembly, Easton was the “hype man,” encouraging the entire student body to get involved. His kindness and big heart are among the reasons Easton Garrett is deserving of this award, and Franklinville Elementary School is proud to recognize him as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Grays Chapel Elementary School - Molly Hudson - 3rd Grade

Molly Hudson is an all-around good citizen and a wonderful addition to student body at Grays Chapel. She comes to school each morning with a smile on her face and always has something kind to say to everyone. Molly chooses daily to work for excellence, ask questions, and push through challenging work until she meets success. She is always one of the first to volunteer answers and her dedication is paying off. Molly is a leader and an example to others. She works well with all of her classmates, never complains, and stays positive at all times. Molly is a well-rounded young student and a leader in our school and community. It is with great pride that Grays Chapel Elementary School recognizes Molly Hudson as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Level Cross Elementary School - Eric Gonzalez - 5th Grade

Eric Gonzalez is polite, respectful to everyone, extremely responsible, and always makes good choices. He could be the poster child for our school’s Positive Behavior Intervention and Support (PBIS) matrix. As a result of his outstanding behavior, Eric has received a number PRIDE awards this school year. Besides demonstrating great character, Eric also goes above and beyond in the classroom. He is a dedicated learner, does his very best on all assignments, and is willing to help a fellow classmate who is struggling with a concept. Eric is a true shining star at and is very deserving of Level Cross Elementary School’s STAR<sup>3</sup> Student award for January.

Liberty Elementary School - Kamden Walker - 3rd Grade

As a student, Kamden Walker is diligent in all of his academic work. He always goes beyond what is expected and shows perseverance inside and outside of the classroom. Kamden is a great friend to current and new students. His kindness and willingness to help are second to none, he continuously displays a positive demeanor, and his smile is guaranteed to brighten your day. Liberty Elementary School is proud to recognize Kamden Walker as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Northeastern Randolph Middle School - Isabella Malpica - 7th Grade

Isabella Malpica is an excellent and ideal student. She often goes above and beyond her assigned tasks and has been observed asking deeper and more insightful questions during lessons. Isabella can be helpful to her fellow students and gets along well with her peers. She is very respectful and kind, and also is an active member of the Northeastern Battle of the Books team. Congratulations to Isabella Malpica, Northeastern Randolph Middle School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Providence Grove High School - William Coltrane - 12th Grade

Will Coltrane is an exceptional student in every way. He is respectful of himself and others and never fails to help as needed. Although he is quiet and rarely makes his presence known, Will is exceptionally conscientious when he sees a need. Recently, he led his peers on a tour of his family's dairy farm. Will was knowledgeable about the operation of the farm and spoke from experience. He has grown in his public speaking ability and is an outstanding leader. In class, Will is willing to answer questions in a kind manner and is gentle even when frustrations arise with small engines. He is an outstanding young student and will accomplish much in his future. Providence Grove High School appreciates Will Coltrane and is glad to recognize him as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Ramseur Elementary School - Mia Herrera-Araiza - 5th Grade

It is a pleasure to have Mia Herrera-Araiza as a student at Ramseur Elementary School. Mia's smile and personality bring joy to any room. She consistently displays confidence and demonstrates a strong work ethic in the classroom. Mia is kind and respectful to everyone from staff to students. She is always eager to learn new concepts and willing to try new methods and strategies. Mia is an active member of our school's Science Club, where she is able to apply her knowledge from the classroom to real world applications that help our environment. She has a pleasant, peaceful presence and always tries her best. Mia's appreciation for her family and friends is evident. We are proud to announce Mia Herrera-Araiza as Ramseur Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman Elementary School - Hellen Velasco Fiscal - 3rd Grade

Recently, when a staff member at Randleman Elementary School was in need of physical assistance, Hellen Velasco Fiscal alerted two other adults at the school. Hellen's care and concern for the staff member reveal the compassion she has for others. While the staff member was absent from school, Hellen checked on the staff member, and upon the staff member's return to school, Hellen made sure she took the staff member's hand as they moved about the school. Hellen's care, concern, empathy, and gentleness for the staff member was precious and very much appreciated. Hellen adds fun and humor to our school day and her cheery disposition endears her to those around her. Hellen is a curious student who is a risk-taker in learning. Congratulations to Hellen Velasco Fiscal, Randleman Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman High School - Lindsey Nenne - 12th Grade

Lindsey Nenne epitomizes the driven work ethic, strong character, and entrepreneurial spirit that Randleman High School strives to instill in its students. Her English teacher says, "Lindsey is an exceptionally hard worker who always puts her best foot forward. She has high hopes for a wonderful future, and I believe with all my heart that she will accomplish whatever she sets out to undertake." As vice president of entrepreneurship for DECA, Lindsey manages our Orange and Brew coffee shop. She also is secretary of Junior Civitans and a shooting guard on our varsity girls' basketball team. Lindsay balances her strong extracurricular schedule while pursuing a rigorous academic course load. Her diligence has resulted in a partial scholarship to Colorado School of MINES, where she will pursue a degree in civil engineering. Randleman High School is proud to honor Lindsey Nenne as an exceptional student and an even more amazing person, and we congratulate her on being selected our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman Middle School - Justin Aguilar-Canuto - 6th Grade

Justin Aguilar-Canuto is an amazing individual, both in and out of the classroom. He has strong character and ethics, and treats everyone with respect and dignity. As a student, Justin is hard-working and self-motivated and remains attentive and diligent throughout the school day. Teachers can count on Justin to enter class ready to work. He is helpful, seeks opportunities to support both staff and students, genuinely cares for others, and is willing to help those in need. Justin goes out of his way to ensure other students feel included and appreciated. When you pass Justin in the hall, he will give you an incredibly delightful smile that will brighten your day. He is a kind-hearted person, and we are honored to have him as part of Tiger Nation and to select him as Randleman Middle School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.
