

Mrs. Sherin C. Hinnant

Mrs. Sherin Hinnant was born on January 6, 1950 in Trenton, NJ. She graduated from Northside High (now North Atlanta High) in Atlanta in 1968. She earned her B.A. in Education in 1972 and her M.A. in English Education in 1977, both from Georgia College.

Throughout her career of over 39 years, she has taught at Warner Robins High, Northside High, Warner Robins Junior High, Rumble Junior High, and Houston County High. In addition to serving as an English Department Chair, the HCHS Literary Coordinator, and a Gifted Lead Teacher, she consistently immersed herself in student life through her sponsorship of numerous activities, including Beta Club, Anchor Club, National Honor Society, Literary Club, Academic Bowl Team, and Varsity Cheerleaders. Listed repeatedly in Who's Who Among American Teachers, she was selected as the Gervaise Wynn Perdue Gifted Teacher of the Year, named Georgia Teacher of the Year by the Air Force Association, and was honored as the STAR Teacher in 1983, 1987, 1994, 1999, 2001, 2003, and 2004.

Mrs. Hinnant officially retired in 2005 but remains so passionate about education that she still teaches at Houston County High School. Sherin resides in Warner Robins and is an active member of Central Baptist Church. She relishes the time she is able to spend with her two grandchildren, Josh and Ashlyn Fraley.

"I wanted to thank you for preparing me for the endeavor that I wasn't even aware that I was going to undertake." ~ Cecilia Vilagomez, former student

"The combination of her effective teaching methods, her meticulous attention to detail, her genuine interest in each teenager who sat in her classes and her superb organization enabled her to handle advanced classes as well as records of all gifted students at the school." ~ Joseph Smith, Retired Principal, Warner Robins High School

