

Edith A. Gray Student Scholarship Award

The Edith A. Gray Endowment will be accepting applications for the Edith A. Gray Scholarship. The award will be given to students who demonstrate an issue of need and that reflect the diversity of the institution. Priority will be given to students from the Conecuh County Area.

Ms. Gray, a community pillar, educator and long-serving RSTC Advisory Board member dedicated many years to serving the Evergreen community and students she taught in home economics. She believed in continuing education and building a strong foundation for students' academic, social, professional development and growth.

This award will be presented to two RSTC students at the end of the Spring Semester.

Recipients must:

- Be a current Reid State student with at least two semesters remaining prior to application or a High School Student that has been accepted to RSTC for the Summer or Fall semester (please provide a letter of acceptance if not currently attending RSTC).
- Submit a copy of your RSTC transcript or High School Transcript
- Complete the required application process:
  - 1-2 page essay on the importance of education and what this scholarship opportunity would mean to you.
  - Submit a letter of recommendation from a RSTC faculty member.
  - Complete the attached application form.

Recipients will receive a $500 scholarship. Selected recipients must commit to attending the RSTC Ceremony in order to receive their Scholarship Award by the RSC 21st Century Foundation Members. Scholarship recipients will be announced during the RSTC Graduation Ceremony.
