

Quick Reference Guide

Description...

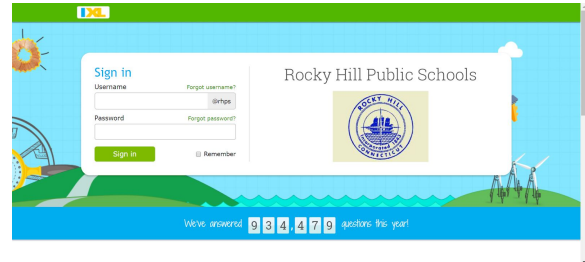

IXL is a skill based learning tool used to close gaps in areas of Math and English.

URL...

<https://www.ixl.com/signin/rhps>

General Information...

Students can access IXL by navigating to the link provided. From there, they will be brought to the sign-in page depicted below.

From here, students will use the username and password provided from their teacher to sign into their account. If the student is having difficulty signing in and accessing the program they should reach out to their teacher for support.