

CHAPTER 6.00 – HUMAN RESOURCES

EMPLOYMENT

6.10

- I. All personnel appointments shall be done in accordance with Alabama law and in compliance with applicable State Board of Education and School Board rules.

- II. The Superintendent is directed to develop appropriate employment procedures governing the recruitment, screening, selection, appointment and employment of all Dale County School System personnel. This includes, without limitation, the authority to develop a system to credit new support hires for years of experience in other school systems so long as the experience is in the same position hired for. Employment qualifications and other criteria will be listed in job descriptions for each position within the school system.
