Dear Chereese,

This is to offer our appreciation for your work.

Reports from CSCT supervisors and school staff indicate you have developed excellent interpersonal and collaborative relationships in the school and with outside agencies. They cite how you go extra distance to coordinate treatment and behavior support plans with school staff. Principals emphasized how they appreciate your communication and follow-through with them leading to a high level of trust. Additionally, supervisors mentioned your creative coping strategies for your students helps them manage the busy school environments.

On top of this you have maintained high quality supports and services at work while continuing with your education goals outside after work. Thank you for the energetic commitment to your work in Darby High School.

Sincerely,
