CLASS CALENDAR

You will notice every Sunday I have our theme for the week. Also, in all caps, I have a color. Over each weekend I ask that you and your child look through magazines, ads, or look on a computer and find pictures that are of that color for the week and cut them out. On your child's first day of attendance for that week, please have 2-3 pictures brought to school. We will be adding them to our color wall. Example: the week of September 6 is *GREEN so find pictures that are mostly GREEN.

CLASSROOM NEWS

This week in Preschool our theme is All About Me. Monday's discussion was about our eye color, hair color, and ways we all look different. Tuesday's focus was about our favorite color. Wednesday we talked about feelings and started looking at what letters make up our names. Our families was our topic for Thursday and the kids drew all their family members. Friday's all about our body parts. This week our books are: The Skin You Live In, All By Myself, Feelings, I Like Me, The Family Book, Clifford's Family, & Me and My Amazing Body.

In our Sensory Table this week I put in newspapers, ads, and some scrap paper. The kids spent the week crumbling up the paper to start making their fingers stronger and working on their fine motor skills. This will help in the coming weeks when we start using scissors! It's always helpful to work on these skills at home also!

Have a safe and healthy 3 day weekend!
