

Thanks to a program through the State of NH, eligible students can take up to

2 STEM

STEM =
science, technology,
engineering and math

courses per year for FREE!

The Governor's Dual and Concurrent Enrollment program pays the tuition, making it more affordable than ever for students to earn college credit and get a Running Start on a college education. Scholarships available for Early College STEM courses too!

By the numbers:

103 NH high schools offering dual enrollment credit courses

$1M In scholarships for STEM courses distributed last year

10K+ Courses taken in 2018-19 for dual/concurrent college credit

Learn more at ccsnh.edu/prs

RUNNING START

Earn College Credit in high school

I encourage all New Hampshire high school students to take advantage of this amazing opportunity by taking dual credit courses through NH Community Colleges, including free courses in science, technology, engineering and math. It is a great way to make college more affordable for New Hampshire families and gain skills for the 21st century.

— Chris Sununu, Governor of New Hampshire

*Does not include the cost of course materials

Rev. 9/2020