

AP Spanish

Coursework will be conducted in Spanish at all times. Students will be expected to communicate with one another, the teacher, and other Spanish speakers exclusively in Spanish, in order to develop a high level of proficiency in speaking and understanding.

Students will be expected to read, view, and listen to authentic materials.

Students will be expected to prepare written compositions on a regular basis that present information, synthesize information, or communicate via text with another Spanish speaker, such as in emails or moderated blog discussions.

Students will be expected to complete many digital tasks.
