Mandatory Consequence

- ▶ Acts of bullying shall be punished by a range of consequences through the progressive discipline process. Such consequences shall include, at a minimum, counseling and disciplinary action as appropriate under the circumstances. However, Georgia law mandates that upon a finding by the disciplinary hearing officer, panel or tribunal that a student in grades 6-12 has committed the offense of bullying for the third time in a school year, the student shall be assigned to an alternative school.

Notice Obligation

- ▶ Each local BOE shall establish and publish in its local board policy a method to notify the parent, guardian, or other person who has control or charge of a student upon a finding by a school administrator that such student has committed an offense of bullying or is a victim of bullying.

Responsibility of the Administration

Investigate any report of bullying promptly.

Each school will develop a plan for initial and ongoing bullying education that will take place throughout the school year. This plan will be shared with the Asst. Supt for School Operations. All students and staff members must be educated on bullying and consequences within the first month of school.

Develop a yearly plan for educating staff, students, and parents.

Use provided system-wide Houston County form to document bullying.

Use provided system-wide Houston County form to document bullying.

Notify the parents of both the bully and the victim.

Apply necessary interventions and consequences.

Posting & Handbook Requirements

Each local BOE shall ensure that students and parents of students are notified of the prohibition against bullying and the penalties for violating the prohibition. This information shall be posted at each school and included in student and parent handbooks.

Each school has a standard posting to place in the school in a visible location near the front office.

Mandated Reporting

- ▶ Any teacher or other school employee who has reliable information that would lead a reasonable person to suspect that someone is a target of bullying shall immediately report it to the principal.
- ▶ Once trained, teachers and staff members will sign-off that they have received training.
