1	How to keep the kids safe for cov19 the kids that go to school.	8/19/2020 2:52 PM
2	how are the progress of students with the covid-19 and in and out of school dealings. more focus on the day to day of adulthood.	8/16/2020 5:05 PM
3	Online tutoring; plans for when teachers and students get COVID diagnoses (of course, we hope that doesn't happen!); the safety, health, & wellness of students taking school virtually.	8/14/2020 7:50 PM
4	Ways to provide virtual learning for elective courses in case distance learning becomes mandatory	8/14/2020 5:12 PM
5	I don't know	8/14/2020 2:26 PM
6	none	8/14/2020 8:09 AM
7	My student has stated that groups have to wait at the stairs to go down the stairs 6' apart, but are all gathered closely together waiting in their turn to go up or down the stairs. Maybe figure out a way to let the classes out in 30 second increments and give the classes a little bit longer to get to their next class. I know it won't doing it like that, but maybe something along those lines.	8/13/2020 7:13 PM
8	Safety	8/13/2020 12:56 PM
9	They need to come up with a better way to distribute food during the week for virtual learners. They also should discuss online-only schooling as well. It would be amazing to know that the school actually cares about its students and its faculty and staff at this time, but that doesn't seem to be coming across very well. Kids that are in school just can't keep up the way they are going, not all year long. Kids in middle and high school can't keep thier masks on, let alone the littles. I just think they need to take the health and safety concerns in mind. Ive spoken to teachers who are afraid to even be teaching right now. I don't think ya'll care too much about that and that should be fixed asap.	8/12/2020 2:07 PM
10	None	8/12/2020 1:20 PM
11	Topics that educate staff on how to deal with cultural diversities.	8/12/2020 11:50 AM
12	None	8/11/2020 11:49 AM
13	how to help online students learn more and how to keep every student safe at the moment	8/11/2020 11:16 AM
14	they're doing a great job already	8/11/2020 10:27 AM
