NAME: _____ PERIOD: _____

Underline 3 sentences in the following paragraph that would best provide evidence for the given literary theme.

Literary Theme: People will remember how we made them feel more than anything else.

1. I sat staring out the window empty as I thought about the presentation Don and I had just made to about Accounting Department. I should be feeling just as relieved as I had felt about how the presentation went, but I can't get my mind off of the fact that Don had been up to something. He had been secretive and suspicious since we had started working on the project together. I really got sick of watching him try to tell me what his problem was. We were supposed to be best friends and now he wasn't even telling me what was bothering him.

2. I never expected him to be so down and out crying. He really had me that his brother had cancer. I went from being mad to feeling like a total jerk. I wasn't there for my friend when he needed me because of some presentation that doesn't really matter. I should have been there for my friend when he needed me.
