

SCHOOL DISPLAYS

Centennial BOCES may host temporary or permanent displays of student work for legitimate educational purposes including, but not limited to, cultural, legal or historical purposes.

Centennial BOCES reserves the right to place restrictions on the content of the displays. The restrictions shall be based on legitimate pedagogical reasons, such as preventing disruption.

All displays shall be initiated, endorsed, organized, and supervised by Centennial BOCES personnel, with approval of the appropriate Centennial BOCES administrator.

The Centennial BOCES administrator will develop, communicate, and enforce guidelines regarding permissible subjects for displays, consistent with state and federal law. Prior to set-up of the displays, the administrator or designee will screen individual components for compliance with the guidelines.

LEGAL REF.: Fleming v. Jefferson County School District R-1, No. 01-1512 (10th Cir. 2002)

CROSS REF.: IMB, Teaching About Controversial Issues and Use of Controversial Materials

Revised: September 20, 2018

Reviewed: CASB 2005

Adopted: February 13, 2003

Centennial BOCES