4:00	The King Is Coming [D] Start at 9:14	Rotating Announcements (switch to band at tale end of song)	Called by Hlm	Karen Lippert
1:00	Welcome Greeting	Pan to congregation
2:00	Theme Intro We continue Part 2 of our sermon series, "You've Got Mail" reading through the letters to the seven churches in Revelation. These letters from Jesus himself to these early believers consisted of both good news and bad news. Today's letter written to the church in Sardis has one of the most severe condemnations out of all of the letters. Jesus tells this church to "wake up" because He is coming soon. We as gathered believers in the church today can listen to this lesson from Jesus to remain awake for his second coming. It is not time to be lazy as the church! We also can hear the Gospel promise that whoever believes in Jesus will never be taken out of the book of life which gives us an eternal hope to share with the world! 3:00	Reading - Rev. 3:1-6 Pastor: 1 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: 'The words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars.'"I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Congregation: 2 Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. Pastor: 3 Remember, then, what you received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come against you. 4 Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. Congregation: 5 The one who conquers will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life. I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. 6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'	Stay on Slides		Adam Wolfe
