Houston County High Wins Best Play at Georgia Theatre Conference

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Houston County High School drama students competed in the 55th Annual Georgia Theatre Conference. The cast and crew won Best Play in the R. Lynn Woody 55-minute Play Festival for their performance of How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. The 2019 convention was held Oct. 16-19 at Georgia Southwestern University. The students are pictured with their trophy. Drama teacher Brett Taylor is the theatre director and Lexie Stinson serves as music director.

A satire of big business and all it holds sacred, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying follows the rise of J. Pierrepont Finch. Finch uses a handbook to climb the corporate ladder from lowly window washer to high-powered executive, tackling familiar but potent dangers as the aggressively compliant "company man," the office party, backstabbing coworkers, caffeine addiction, and, of course, true love.

Houston County High School is located at 920 Highway 96 in Warner Robins; Dr. Doug Rizer serves as principal. For more information regarding the drama program, please contact Taylor at Brett.Taylor@hcbe.net.
