Process:

- We stayed after school with Mrs. Doutaz and Ms. Harshfield in the library. They told us since we both like reading so much, they wanted us to create a book trailer on a book that we both liked. They showed us some examples of book trailers online.
 - We both really like the series My Weird School by Dan Gutman.
 - We chose Mrs. Dole is Out of Control from My Weird School Daze because we had both recently read the book and it was funny and had lots of action!
- We wanted to use a program that would let us record us talking, so our teachers suggested we use Adobe Spark. There were lots of pictures we could use and we could record ourselves talking about the book.
- We sat down at the computer together and worked on what we wanted to tell people about the book that would make them want to read it. We decided to take turns talking on the slides so it was fair.
- Most of the pictures that we used on our slides came from Pixabay.
