

September 20, 2017 WAO EDUCATION FOUNDATION MEETING RECAP

The WAO Public School Education Foundation met on September 20, 2017 at 5:30 in the WAOHS Library. Members present were Carol Bowman, Carol Anderson, Ellen Strickler, Carol Sedgeman, Dewey Swanson, Pam Jubie. Ed Rosendahl, Sally Roller, and Russell Miller were in attendance. Jon Holter was a guest.

Some highlights from the meeting are:

Fall needs requests went out on September 15th and are due October 13th.

Plans are underway for a Foundation Cookbook. Sally Roller is heading this project. Recipes may be submitted online. These will be completed before the All School Reunion in July 2019. More information will be coming out later.

The Vivian Olson Memorial Scholarship and the O Jay Peyton Scholarship have been paid. The Peyton Scholarship is paid to the student during their second year of college. The 2016 recipient of the Vivian Olson Memorial Scholarship wasn't in school last year, but did attend summer school.

Katie Kleven, a WAO Graduate and now a senior at UND, has volunteered to do the lead story for the Fall Connections.

American Education Week is November 13-17th. We will host a luncheon for all school personnel one day during that week.

The Baked Potato Supper will be February 5th --the night of the Ponies Stephen/Argyle BBB Game.

Jon Holter met with us about our lack of space on the donor wall in some categories. There is not enough space to put in more reels. We will research options for a computer display. Running out of space is a good problem to have!

Memorials and donations for August were accepted.

The October meeting will be at the WAOHS Library on October 18th at 5:00 before the Pony Football Game.
