The Bat

There was a bat
who had a hat.

She wrote notes on her pad.

She went to the lab
so she could grab
her mom, brother, and dad.

She took a pan
and a giant fan,
and when she got there,
they were glad.

When I Went Out

I went to get some gas,
so I could cut the grass.

Then, I got sap
on my baseball cap.

I got a lawn bag
and washed the sap with a rag.

And then, I went back to our little shack.

Pens

I went to the store to buy a pen.
There were too many kinds, so I bought ten.
I took them home and sat on my bed.
I drew in lots of colors, but mostly red.
I drew a jet
and a picture of my pet.
I drew a seashell.
The pictures looked swell!

Helen the Hen

Helen was a hen
who lived by a pigpen.

Her best friend was Jeb.

He lived in a web.

They went down to the well
to sit down for a spell.

Then, they went to the shed
because it was time to be fed.

The Bib

The boy put on a bib,
so he could eat a rib.

He closed it with a pin.
Now, he could wipe his chin.

If he has a drip,
he can clean it in a zip.
“I will get one for my twin,”
he said with a grin.

My Kit

I have a dress-up kit.

I love to play with it.

It is so much fun for a kid.

I carefully open the lid.

I take out a wig,
and then I dance a jig.

For my next trick,
I'll dress up as a stick!

Making Dinner

Mom got the pot.

It was very hot.

She put in a pea pod
and a piece of cod.

Then, she asked Bob
for some corn on the cob.

She started to chop and got some bottles of pop.

She put on a smock.

Dinner is at five o'clock!

One Hot Day

One day in June, it was so hot!

I took a long nap on my cot.

I woke up and played with my top,
and had a snack of chips and pop.

I sat in the shade with my faithful dog.

We watched the birds and saw a frog.

We found some smooth and pretty rocks.

Then, we went inside to play with blocks.

At the Beach

At the beach, I went to the hut.

I got some popcorn and a nut.

I got myself a super sub,
and Mom got herself a popcorn tub.

We got some water in a cup,
and we gave it to our pup.

We sat down and enjoyed the sun.

I love the beach, it's so much fun!

The Little Bug

The little black bug gave his mother a hug.

He also gave her a bud.

They looked at the rug,
and saw their friend, Slug.

He was all covered with mud.

The slug did a shrug,
then cuddled up nice and snug.

So Bug jumped down with a “thud!”
