2:00	Theme Intro Many people are naturally forgetful. There are things in life that we never should forget. This morning we consider our “spiritual forgetfulness,” forgetting what God has done and continues to do for His people. This is not a new problem. Many people in Scripture suffered from this kind of “spiritual amnesia.” In our text we see how Israel was instructed to use stones as a memorial to what God had done for them at the Jordan River. So too, we need to cling to the ways God has provided for us to remember His good graces and mercies shown to us in our lives. God has never forgotten us, and He never will. There's a grace when the heart is under fire
Another way when the walls are closing in
And when I look at the space between
Where I used to be and this reckoning
I know I will never be alone

There was another in the fire standing next to me
There was another in the waters holding back the seas
And should I ever need reminding of how I've been set free
There is a cross that bears the burden
Where another died for me, there is another in the fire

All my debt left for dead beneath the waters
I'm no longer a slave to my sin anymore
And should I fall in the space between
What remains of me and this reckoning
Either way I won't bow to the things of this world
And I know I will never be alone

There is another in the fire standing next to me
There is another in the waters holding back the seas
And should I ever need reminding what power set me free
There is a grave that holds no body
And now that power lives in me

And I can see the light in the darkness
As the darkness bows to Him
I can hear the roar in the heavens
As the space between wears thin
I can feel the ground shake beneath us
As the prison walls cave in
Nothing stands between us
Nothing stands between us

There is no other name but the Name that is Jesus
He who was and still is and will be through it all
So come what may in the space between
All the things unseen and this reckoning
I know I will never be alone, I know I will never be alone

There'll be another in the fire standing next to me
There'll be another in the waters holding back the seas
And should I ever need reminding How good You've been to me
I'll count the joy come ev'ry battle 'Cause I know that's where You'll be

I'll count they joy come ev'ry battle, 'cause I know that's where You'll be.
I'll count they joy come ev'ry battle, 'cause I know that's where You'll be.

Our Goal is 350 pairs of shoes. So therefore the total needed is $8750. These uniform shoes are a requirement to attend school in Haiti. Most families earn $30-50/month and the shoes cost them $25/pair. This is not feasible for most families with multiple children. That's where you can help! Donate as you can (cash, check, or online at ddlc.org using the GIVE tab at the top.) So far we have raised enough money to purchase 30 pairs of shoes so that is 30 students who will be able to attend school due to your generosity! 3:00	Reading Joshua 4:1-7 Joshua 4:1-7 Pastor: 1 When all the nation had finished passing over the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua,  Congregation: 2 "Take twelve men from the people, from each tribe a man,  Pastor: and command them, saying,  Congregation: "Take twelve stones from here out of the midst of the Jordan, from the very place where the priests' feet stood firmly, and bring them over with you and lay them down in the place where you lodge tonight."  Pastor: 4 Then Joshua called the twelve men from the people of Israel, whom he had appointed, a man from each tribe. 5 And Joshua said to them,  Congregation: "Pass on before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and take up each of you a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel, 6 that this may be a sign among you. When your children ask in time to come,  Pastor: "What do those stones mean to you?"  Congregation: 7 then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall be to the people of Israel a memorial forever."	Switch to Slides	Jeff Schubert

C: Forgive my forgettings, Father.

P: When I think of all the good things I have, and even more my family and friends, I too often worship the gifts and not the Giver.

C: Forgive my forgettings, Father.

P: When I see the needs of others and the human suffering in my community and world, and ignore the plight of others,

C: Forgive my forgettings, Father.

P: When I think back to my past and contemplate my present, and see Your almighty hand guiding my life, and fail to recognize Your direction in my life,

C: Forgive my forgettings, Father.

P: When I sing songs of praise, pray prayers for others, and listen to Your Word, and yet take the blood-bought forgiveness of Jesus Christ for granted, as though somehow I deserve it,

C: Forgive my forgettings, Father.

P: When I leave this place of worship, and travel back home and the next week to my place of employment, and do not witness to Your grace and mercy when I have the chance,

C: Forgive my forgettings, Father.

P: We pray now for those with special needs among us, namely those who grieve loved ones; those who are ill and recuperating, those facing surgery, those who are in need of your special intervention in their lives (insert names here.). Help us to remember them not only in prayer, but also in Christian action,

C: Forgive my forgettings, Father.

P: These and all the thoughts and prayers of our heart, we bring to you Father, You, who have never forgotten us, Your Children.

We have had an opportunity to remember what our Lord has done for us and continues to do through us through receiving this life- giving Sacrament, hearing His Word, and singing His praises.
