

Our Mission

The objective of the Breckinridge County High School Library Media Center is to instill in students a life-long love of reading and to provide the knowledge, tools, and technology to research for personal interest and educational needs while encouraging student to make research and reading a life-long skill.

Our mission is to ensure that all members of the school community are efficient, effective users of information. The library is a media-rich center, with access to books, both in print and electronic format, magazine subscription, and newspaper subscriptions.

Library Staff

Heather Rogers graduated from Breckinridge County High School and played basketball at Kentucky Wesleyan College where she earned a middle school education degree. She spent her first three years teaching language arts at Oldham County Middle School and then moved to Bowling Green to get married to her husband, Scott. She taught in Bowling Green at Drakes Creek Middle School for two years before she had Marcy and decided to move back to Hardinsburg. While in Bowling Green, Mrs. Rogers received her library media certification from Western Kentucky University. She is currently in her second year as library media specialist at BCHS and loves it!
