DISCUSSION

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss promoting and celebrating diversity within the Rocky Hill Public Schools and continuing efforts to ensure that all students achieve excellence. Dr. Zito reported on the district's participation in the Connecticut Teacher Residency Program and introduced Mr. Brian Sanford, a Rocky Hill Public Schools' employee who will be participating in the program, and Mr. Paul Zocco, a West Hill School teacher who will be his mentor. Ms. Listro reported on the district-wide staff training on diversity and excellence that occurred during the 2020-2021 school year, and she discussed plans for continued training for 2021-2022. Dr. Zito introduced Mr. Eric Crawford, consultant to the Rocky Hill Public Schools. Mr. Crawford will work closely with district stakeholders to aid in the district's efforts to promote diversity and ensure the success of all students. Members of the community were given time to speak on the three agenda items.
