LEGISLATIVE UPDATE – Phoebe Bailey
The House passed a CRA that nullified rules covering federal standards for teacher training and ESSA. The Secretary of Education, Betsy DeVos, wants states to continue work on their ESSA plans. She’s keeping in place the timeline for submitting the plans.

There is a movement to reduce federal Medicaid spending by 25 percent. In this proposal, schools would be forced to compete with hospitals, doctors, urgent-care clinics, and other health-care centers to ensure continued reimbursements.

Ms. Bailey also shared a declining enrollment data spreadsheet and asked the board members to notify Richard Abernathy of any corrections that need to be made to their data.
