New Student Procedures

Once you have the documentation to gain an Activate Code:

Make an appointment with office staff during the Registration Window to come to the school.

OR

If you come to the school without an appointment and parents are already in the office, you may be asked to sign in and wait in your car. Parents, without an appointment will be seen on a first come basis. Once you sign in, you can wait in the parking lot or you may choose to have the office call and set up an appointment.

The list for parents without an appointment will be outside the school office. Parent/Guardian must put their name on the form, time they signed up, and a phone number on the form to be reached. Parents can wait in the car in the parking lot or indicate they want to be called for an appointment.

Other Procedures

- All parents/guardians will remain in their car until time to enter the building to meet with staff.
- ONLY the parent/guardian and one other individual will be allowed in the building. NO MORE THAN TWO PEOPLE. The student(s) are not required to be present for registration.
- Please come with a mask on, (if you do not have one, one will be provided). Hand sanitizer will also be available in the entrance to the office or lobby.
- Parents are encouraged to register students prior to July 24, 2020. Registration will not be available August 3 – 5, 2020. Parents can begin to make appointments beginning August 6th if they were unable to complete registration prior to the end of July.
