To The Top

305 for NOW!

My name is Jacqueline Watson- Thompson. I am 34 years old and I am from the small town Doddsville, MS. I am a 2003 graduate of Ruleville Central High School. I attend New Holy Trinity Church of Doddsville. I believe that being an involved parent is the main key to students' success. I have 4 sons: Jacob who is in the 3rd grade at Ruleville Central Elementary School, Derrick who is in the 8th grade and Luke who is in the 6th grade both attend Ruleville Middle School, and Christian Thompson who attends Busy Bee Daycare.

RMS Parent of the Year 2017-2018

Ms. Jacqueline Watson-Thompson

Precious Wilson, a student at RMS, was a participant at the Special Olympics Track and Field Event, where she was a first place winner.

Ms. Martin was rewarded a gift basket for her classes having high iReady scores.

RMS Beta Club were servers at the monthly board meetings which was held at RMS.

Bulldog Rocks!

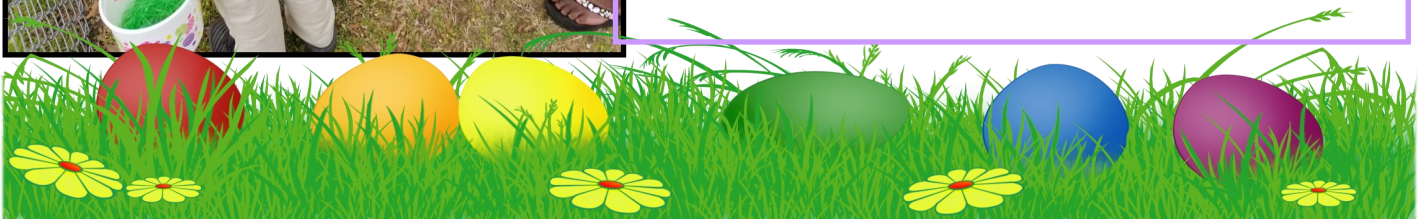

The Easter Bunny brought goodies to the RMS Staff!

The great Easter Egg Hunt at RMS!!!

The RMS staff looking for the “Golden Egg”!

Ms. Martha Martin was the founder of the “Golden Egg”

RMS Beta Club, Cheerleaders, and RMS Choir were part of the clean-up crew for Sunflower, MS “Clean-up Sunflower Day”. Mrs. Christie Womack, a 6th grade teacher of RMS, Beta Club Leader, and choir director of RMS Choir, volunteers, and Mayor Desiree Norwood lead the way!!!
