

Student/Classroom: _____ Examiner: _____ Assessment Date: _____

Polar Exploration 701

Sopris West

The polar regions at both ends of the earth have attracted many explorers. Some were scientists. Some were mapmakers. (Others) went to seek fame as the (first) explorers to reach the poles. The (first) polar explorer was a Greek who (sailed) north around 400 B.C. He probably (discovered) either Norway or Iceland. No one (sailed) north for another 1,000 years. The, Ottar (of) Norway sailed north from Norway and (discovered) the White Sea. The Vikings settled (both) Iceland and Greenland around A.D. 900. (However), they did not go any farther (north).

Readability Estimation

Formula	Value
Dale-Chall	5-6
Kincaid	3.8
SMOG-Grading	7.9

Student Name: _____ Classroom: _____ Date: _____

Polar Exploration 701

Sopris West

The polar regions at both ends of the earth have attracted many explorers. Some were scientists. Some were mapmakers. (Others, Whip, Make) went to seek fame as the (first, sea, satisfy) explorers to reach the poles. The (toward, unlock, first) polar explorer was a Greek who (owner, sailed, terrify) north around 400 B.C. He probably (discovered, kettle, afterwards) either Norway or Iceland. No one (toward, sailed, powder) north for another 1,000 years. The, Ottar (shoe, of, umm) Norway sailed north from Norway and (breathe, salty, discovered) the White Sea. The Vikings settled (elegantly, both, obtain) Iceland and Greenland around A.D. 900. (Harmony, Chance, However), they did not go any farther (north, per, melodic).