

"Family literacy takes place during daily routines in life as parents, children, and other family members use literacy at home and in their community."

—International Literacy Association

