

The WAO Public School Education Foundation met on August 7th in the WAOHS Library. Members present were Carol Anderson, Dewey Swanson, Russell Miller, Pam Jubie, Carol Sedgeman, Ellen Strickler, Carol Bowman, Sally Roller, and Melanie Fulks Nelson, WAO Alumni.

Some highlights from the meeting are:

- * Pam Jubie reported on the fair parade entry. Seven boxes of pencils wasn't enough! It was suggested to have nine boxes next year and also four people to help distribute the pencils to the huge crowd.
- * Many class reunions were held and the Foundation was represented at most of them.
- * The WAO School Buildings were open on Saturday, July 28th. People were pleased to visit their roots!
- * The deadline for submitting recipes will be October 1st. If you haven't submitted your recipe(s), please drop it off at the superintendent's office or mail it to PO Box 125, Warren. The plan is to have the cookbooks here before Christmas.
- * The 2018 Golf Scramble was a huge success with a net profit of over $23,000.00. 127 golfers participated in the event along with many volunteer workers.

- * The golf fee for 2019 will remain at $50.00. Teams may register at any time for this event.
- * A welcome letter has been sent to new staff member, Jeremy Tallum, informing him that he has $200.00 coming to him from the Foundation for items that he will use in his classroom/classes. He will also receive $50.00 for purchasing Pony clothing/items at the WAO Warehouse.
- * The brick planter on the NW corner of the school lot has been repaired. The District placed a plaque on it noting the Foundation's donation for this project.
- * Fall needs requests will go out to the staff on September 13th and will be due on October 12th.
- * A sublimation printer was approved for Beth Murray for the WAO Warehouse in the amount of $1,724.24.
- Carol Bowman will represent the Foundation at the fall workshop on August 30th.
- The board was invited to attend the Mark Lindquist Presentation on August 28th.

*Melanie Nelson was welcomed as our new board member.

* The September meeting will be on September 19th at 5:30 in the WAO HS Library.
