

April 13 - 17, 2020

Sixth Grade Reading Students.

You are receiving the second digital weekly assignment from me. Your assignments will come to you in this form the remainder of the year.

Your assignment this week is over conjunctions. Conjunctions are parts of speech that connect two thoughts, phrases, or sentences into one sentence. I have inclosed a list of commonly used conjunctions. Complete these worksheets and return them to me through email or my Lohn Teacher Page.

Have a wonderful week. Watch for my emails or phone calls.

I miss you,
Mrs. Martin

The word "Believe!" is written in a playful, bubbly font. Each letter is a different color and has a unique texture or pattern. The 'B' is blue with white dots, 'e' is yellow with white dots, 'l' is green with white dots, 'i' is red with white dots, 'e' is blue with white dots, 'v' is purple with white dots, 'e' is orange with white dots, and '!' is blue with white dots. The word is tilted upwards to the right.

The following is a list of commonly used coordinating conjunctions. Coordinating conjunctions are words that combine thoughts, phrases, or sentences into one sentence. Examples are:
