Bulletin column January 05, 2020 “From the Pastor”

Dear parishioners,

Happy New Year to all! The year has obviously not started off as I would like, as I have been suffering from what turned out to be influenza A, H1N1 since last Saturday. I do apologize if I infected any of you all at last weekend's Masses while not knowing I had such a serious illness. In the meantime, thanks so much to Fr. Mike Keating for being a workhorse in this time when he is also so busy preparing for his departure to Guatemala. I'm sure he got a little taste of what life was like for Fr. Fulton when he was here alone! He also helpfully brought me some provisions. I also want to thank Dcn. Luis Guzman for bringing me chicken soup and helping out Fr. Mike at our Spanish-language services. Thanks to all of you who have reached out to me to let me know that you are praying for me and wishing me good health. My mother was hospitalized last weekend with an ailment called RSV from which my little 17-month-old great nephew was also suffering. Both are well now, and I thank those who were also praying for them. I am feeling somewhat better now but have been advised to stay away from my poor parishioners to avoid getting them sick until Saturday (the 4th) to avoid infecting you all. I hope to be very much back in action for this weekend's Masses. This is the third illness I have had in the past month, with a bad cold a month ago and strep two weeks ago. This experience has taught me a lot about reliance on others and our mutual unity in prayer, as well as offering me an opportunity to offer any sufferings I have for the parish.

I would like everyone also to keep in mind and in prayer our Archbishop George Lucas in this time as well. At the age of 70, he has had to assume the additional duties of taking over as temporary administrator of the Diocese of Lincoln while their ordinary, Bishop James Conley, is away on medical leave to deal with anxiety and depression. I have heard it said that this is the first time a U.S. bishop has been granted such a leave. These struggles affect a large number of people in the U.S. and in our parish. While these are mental health issues that absolutely have a physical component to them, their roots are in our thinking in response to challenges and stress. When we suffer from these struggles, as I have in the past, it is good for us to pursue talk therapy to learn new ways to cope with our challenges.

That practical work goes hand in hand with the tremendous spiritual help available to us in the life of grace. It is so important for us to remember to count the blessings we receive through Christ Jesus in being children of God.

The Church's extended Christmas celebration, including this weekend's Feast of the Epiphany, helps to fill our hearts with joy, hope, and peace. We continue to focus with gratitude on the gift of Christ Jesus. As I have mentioned in year's past, I love Epiphany with its remembrance of the visit to the infant Jesus of the three wise men, who were likely Persian, with their opulent gifts to glorify the newborn king. While Jesus is still a helpless infant, nature, prophecy, and providence call upon them to acknowledge His future greatness. Thus is Emmanuel, God-with-us, revealed to the nations.

The Church is now composed of people of every nation, race and tongue. We have heard of terrible crimes committed against Jews and Muslims in recent times. We pray in solidarity for them, much as we pray for our own Christian brothers and sisters suffering persecution throughout the world, as no one should be subjected to hateful violence for what they believe. We also pray that all of them, and all people in the world, may come to know the comfort and love of God in the gift of His Son, Jesus. May we always be grateful for the gift of Jesus and the hope and salvation He brings to our own lives,

A popular Christmas song which has gone through my head this Christmastime is “The Little Drummer Boy,” which is associated with the wise men's visit. The drummer boy accompanies the magi to visit Jesus, but feels abashed that he has no gift fit for a king as the gold, frankincense, and myrrh that they give. He plays for Jesus on His drum to the holy infant's approval. What good gifts do we have to give Jesus? If we give from the heart and in grace, using our talents and gifts, and doing good works for those among us in need, I am sure it brings a smile to the Child Jesus. May we thus seek to please Jesus each day throughout this coming year.

- Fr. Anthony Weidner

1. Es muy importante que los estudiantes lleguen a la escuela a tiempo para recoger su desayuno, desempacar su mochila y estar en su asiento a las 8:00 am. Los estudiantes que llegan tarde no solo comienzan el día atrás sino que retrasan a toda la clase. Intente también programar citas fuera del horario académico.

2. La matrícula vence el 15 de cada mes. Es importante hacer sus pagos mensuales. Tenemos que mantenernos al día con las responsabilidades financieras de la escuela también y sus pagos de matrícula oportunos aseguran que lo hagamos. Gracias.
