

Kindergarten Weekly News for

Feb. 3-7, 2020

Important Reminders:

- We will be ordering caps/gown for kindergarten graduation soon. You may go ahead and begin sending in the $20, before the deadline arrives.
- Progress reports will be going home at the end of this week, please sign and return the following week.
- PLEASE MAKE SURE that your child is being listened to each night reading the little paper decodable that we send home. Please return daily in their folders, signed so that we know you listened to them read.
- We have a nonsense word practice sheet to time your child on this week for practice. 1 min. to sound out as many letters and blend into words as possible.
- Our new sight words this week are: eight, nine & ten
- On the back of this sheet is a whole list of the 106 words that your child needs to know by May. Please go ahead and begin working on the others also. We will continue to let you know which words from the whole list are being added to the test from week to week. Do not throw the whole list away!!!

This week: Math- we are counting to 100 by 1's, 5's and 10's. Reading: We are reading the story My Lucky Day and we are focusing on the letter L and its sounds in words. Please continue to review letters and sounds nightly.
