

Randolph County School System

“STAR³ Students” for February 2020

Coleridge Elementary School - Aydan Carter - 3rd Grade

Aydan Carter is a genuinely kind and considerate student. When he sees that someone is struggling, he is always the first to jump in and help. He also takes it upon himself to make sure that others have the opportunity to be included. Aydan is a hard-working student and a wonderful friend. He is truly a great example of Rocket pride! Coleridge Elementary School is proud to recognize Aydan Carter as our STAR³ Student for February.

Eastern Randolph High School - Kristal Beltran - 12th Grade

Kristal Beltran is a genuine, caring, and dependable student. Whether helping translate or pushing her peers to achieve their potential, Kristal always puts others before herself. She serves as Beta Club president and Junior Civitans vice president, and tutors elementary school students in the Wildcat Buddies program. Kristal has represented Eastern Randolph High School in countless all-county and honor band competitions, playing trumpet and as a member of the drumline. She is also captain of the girls' soccer team, has been a part of Tar Heel Girls State and Student LIFT, and works at her parents' western store in her spare time. Kristal plans to pursue a degree in criminal justice and hopes one day to work for the FBI. She embodies what it means to be a Wildcat. We are proud of Kristal Beltran's dedication to Eastern Randolph High School and congratulate her on being selected our STAR³ Student for February.

Farmer Elementary School - Blake Elvington - 3rd Grade

Blake Elvington comes to class with a bright personality and ready to learn. He is an outstanding student who has overcome obstacles in his life. Throughout his time at Farmer Elementary School, Blake has been a remarkable student excelling in all academic areas, particularly shining in mathematics. He is one of the leaders of our third grade in multiplication and division. Blake also demonstrates wonderful characteristics to his classmates by being a friend to everyone, always having a positive attitude, and persevering through any obstacle thrown at him. These qualities, along with Blake Elvington's excitement for learning, make him Farmer Elementary School's STAR³ Student for February.

Seagrove Elementary School - Levi Dalke - 4th Grade

Levi Dalke always makes good choices. He is very mature and is a role model for his peers. Levi can often be seen as a peacemaker if and when conflict arises. He is very motivated and wants to be successful in all things. It is extremely refreshing to see a student as well-rounded as Levi, and it is a joy to teach him and be around him. Seagrove Elementary School is extremely proud to call Levi Dalke our STAR³ Student for February.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Alexius Flowers - 7th Grade

Alexius Flowers is an outstanding student, leader, and role model in class and throughout the school. With a work ethic that is strong for her age group, it is no surprise to hear Alexius' teachers remark that she always goes above and beyond and exceeds expectations in the classroom. Alexius views classroom assignments as an opportunity to share her knowledge with others and she never fails to help other students understand their work. Outside of school, Alexius is willing to help anyone in need. Alexius Flowers is truly a Wildcat, everyone at Southeastern Randolph Middle School believes in her, and we are extremely proud to have her represent us as our STAR³ Student for February.

Southmont Elementary School - Jamilet Almaraz Zamora - 2nd Grade

Jamilet Almaraz Zamora is an absolute joy to have at Southmont Elementary School. She is friendly and helpful to all of her classmates and to her teachers. Jamilet is able to do exceptional work while encouraging her classmates to also do their best. Jamilet's teacher shared, "I am thankful I have had the opportunity to spend this year with Jamilet and I am excited to see what she will do in the future." Southmont Elementary School congratulates Jamilet Almaraz Zamora on being selected our STAR³ Student for February.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Eduardo Ramos Torres - 11th Grade

Eduardo Ramos Torres is an exceptional young student. What stands out most about Eduardo are his eagerness to attend school and desire to learn. He is always positive with a smile on his face. Eduardo has strong mastery of his math material and makes himself available to struggling students. Many have commented on how much he helped them understand the thinking and logic needed to be successful in class. Despite some personal setbacks, Eduardo's classroom performance has remained exceptional. Not only is he able to handle the rigors of high school, he is always willing to help others along the way. Eduardo is a model of resilience, perseverance, and optimism. We could not be more proud to honor Eduardo Ramos Torres as our STAR³ Student for February.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Erick Ayala Solis - 8th Grade

Erick Ayala Solis is an excellent student and has a genuine interest in learning. He strives for good grades and truly wants to understand what he is learning. Erick is a bright student who is independent in his academic pursuits. He is an active member of Junior Beta Club and hopes to attend Randolph Early College High School this fall. Erick is a good citizen of Southwestern Randolph Middle School. He is friendly, kind, polite, and a joy to teach. We have no doubt that Erick will succeed at whatever he decides to do in life, because when he sets his mind to something, he will work until he makes it happen. Southwestern Randolph Middle School is extremely proud to call Erick Ayala Solis our STAR³ Student for February.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Clara Faulkner - Kindergarten

Tabernacle Elementary School is proud to recognize Clara Faulkner for her outstanding behavior and demeanor towards her peers and teachers. Clara is a loving child, is always kind and smiling, shows good manners towards her teachers, and is respectful. She strives to be a good student academically and socially. Clara always puts in her best effort, takes pride in her classwork, and is willing to help anyone in need. She is an outstanding student and role model for her peers. Clara Faulkner's positive outlook and personality make her a perfect selection as Tabernacle Elementary School's STAR³ Student for February.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Ashlan Briles - 11th Grade

Ashlan Briles was the first student from Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve to be selected for the Asheboro-Randolph Chamber of Commerce's Student LIFT Program, which selects only 26 rising sophomores and juniors for leadership skill development. Ashlan is also our first student to volunteer her time and run food drives at various locations. She raised 500 items for the Family Crisis Center in Asheboro and raised 952 food items and $90 for our backpack program. Ashlan was on the first Homecoming Committee and helped organize our first bonfire and homecoming dance. She is a member of many school clubs and sold her handmade ornaments for Christmas, donating all proceeds to the backpack program. She has adopted students to buy holiday gifts for them. Ashlan Briles will be successful in wherever her future path leads, and we congratulate her on being selected Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve's STAR³ Student for February.
