

WAO Public School Education Foundation May Meeting Recap May 6, 2015

The May meeting was held at the WAOHS Library at 5:30 on May 6th. Members present were Carol Bowman, Carol Anderson, Tim Finseth, Dewey Swanson, Ellen Strickler, Russell Miller, Donna Jenkins, Carol Sedgeman, Sally Roller and Angie Brekke.

Some highlights from the meeting:

Carol Sedgeman was welcomed as a new board member.

A special account has been established and opened at American Federal Bank for “Sweeps” from Amazon Smile.

Heidi Thorstenson designed a form for the DVD/CD and flash drive orders of the yearbooks. All of her assistance is appreciated very much.

Scholarship night will be May 20th at 6:00. Carol Bowman and Donna Jenkins will present. Russell Miller and Donna Jenkins will take pictures and other board members will help in order to accomplish this quickly.

National Teacher Day was yesterday. Note pads and pens were given to the teaching staff.

Spring newsletter will be proofed and ready to print by May 21st.

Gloria Hedquist Casey, a WHS Graduate donated a “shoe” quilt that is an awesome fundraiser. Jan Nice volunteered to work on this project.

Sally Roller will be in charge of the Fair Parade.

We won't be doing one of the city planters this year.

The City of Warren is working on promoting Warren to all new residents. We will provide a pen, notepad, pencil, and flash drive for these bags.

Donna Jenkins submitted her resignation. She will continue to volunteer, update folders, and assist in many ways. Her resignation was accepted with regret.

The scholarship selections took place.

The next meeting will be June 3rd at Melodys. The golf letters will be ready to distributed out at this meeting.
