

SB 1553: Campus Visitor Limits

- Under this new law, school administrators, school resource officers, and district peace officers have the authority to refuse entry or eject an individual for up to two years if that person:
 - (1) poses a substantial risk of harm; or
 - (2) behaves in such a way that is inappropriate for the school setting and
 - (A) the authorized individual gives a verbal warning and
 - (B) the individual continues with their behavior.
- Districts are required to maintain a record of these verbal warnings
- At the time someone is ejected or refused entry, a written explanation must be provided by the district.
- If a parent or guardian of a child enrolled in district is ejected or refused entry to the district's property, then arrangements must be made to allow the parent or guardian to participate in the child's ARDC or Section 504 Committee/Team.
- Notice of these provisions must be posted on the district web site, including the process to appeal a decision.
- The law also requires a registered sex offender to immediately self-report their presence on campus to the campus administrative office.
